Season Long points race—Top teams at the end of playoffs will win some fantastic prizes

Sign Ups close May 3rd just prior to the team draft.

Competition details:

Regular season runs for 14 weeks (May 17-August 16)

Teams will be drafted after Mens Night on May 3rd and made up of between 8-10 players

Teams will be randomly drawn with an even number of players from each flight; There will be between 6-10 teams depending on # of registrants.

How to earn points for your team: The team point structure will match the typical men's night scoring system. Effectively, if you win on men's night you also win points for your team. This means players can ALWAYS play with their regular group.

Team Points Breakdown

Participation (just showing up that week): 10pts

Low Gross/Low Net (flighted): 5pts

2nd Low Gross/ Low Net (flighted): 3 pts

3rd Low Gross/ Low Net (flighted): 1pt.

On course prize winner (KP, LP etc.): 5pts.

League standings will be determined as an accumulation of weekly points throughout the regular season (The more times your team plays, the more chances you have to earn points)

Playoffs begin the week of August 23rd

Team points scoring system remains the same, but teams will now compete against another team's point totals based on the final regular season standings. (1v8,2v7,3v6,4v5). From there, winners will play off weekly until a league champion is crowned.
